Need a reason to exhibit? How about...

- There's no better way to reach the ultrasound community.
- 90% of attendees visit the exhibit hall.
- This convention will attract major-purchase decision makers.
- Ultrasound is one of the only imaging modalities that continues to increase its sales annually.
- Unopposed exhibit hours mean more focused attendees in your booth.
- Your competition will be there.

You'll receive

- One complimentary exhibitor scientific program registration with every 8' x 10' booth space purchased.
- Acknowledgment in Sound Waves, the Journal of Ultrasound in Medicine, the Preliminary Program, the Final Program, and on the AIUM's website.
- A profile and list of your products and services in the Buyers Guide provided to all attendees.
- A preregistration list of the meeting registrants approximately 6 weeks prior to the convention.
- An unlimited number of free guest badges so you can invite your favorite customers to visit you in the exhibit hall.
- The opportunity to bring your press packets to the AIUM press room at the convention for distribution to attending press.
- Priority Points, which will help guarantee your choice of location at future conventions.
- The opportunity to attend the Plenary Session. (Exhibit hall will be closed.)
