Don't miss the Plenary Session

Medical Education: Ultrasonography as a Basic Clinical Competency

Richard Hoppmann, MD

Dr Hoppmann is president of the Society of Ultrasound in Medical Education (SUSME) and dean of the University of South Carolina School of Medicine. He is a pioneer in the integration of ultrasound into medical education.

In this groundbreaking session, learn how ultrasound is being used as an effective teaching tool in multiple basic science courses and clinical rotations. Dr Hoppmann explains the value of ultrasonography as an important clinical skill across many specialties and subspecialties of medicine and in numerous clinical scenarios. See page 11 for more details.

Friday, March 30, 2012

9:15 AM–11:30 AM

During the Opening Session, immediately following the Awards Ceremony.

Three- and Four-Dimensional Volume Data Set Manipulation Sessions

Registration for the Three- and Four-Dimensional Volume Data Set Manipulation sessions is on a first-come, first-served basis, according to the date of receipt of the registration form. There is no waiting list for sold-out sessions. You will receive notification of those sessions for which you have been registered. The cost for each session will be $25.00.

The Three- and Four-Dimensional Volume Data Set Manipulation sessions have limited seating and will fill up quickly, so it is recommended that you register as early as possible for these sessions. If your requested session is sold out, we will not charge your credit card. If you paid by check, you will receive a refund check, which you will receive separate from your confirmation. Tickets for entrance to the Three- and Four-Dimensional Volume Data Set Manipulation sessions will be issued on-site with your registration materials.

All sessions will be held on Saturday, March 31. When registering for these sessions, you will need to indicate which companies' equipment you would prefer to work with (GE Healthcare, Philips Healthcare, or Samsung Medison America, Inc). We ask that you select your first and second choices.
